

dTHURSDAY 28 March

The Passover Meal

St Mary's Scottish Episcopal Church, Newport.

(afterwards, you are invited to keep watch for a while)

Prayer as we prepare to gather for Maundy Thursday

I will walk in the wind to meet you Jesus
to let you wash my feet.

I don't want to.

I would rather stay here in the warm,
away from your towels and water
and offers of forgiveness,

for I know what you mean, what you ask, what you give.

But I will come, for I cannot stay here alone,
and I cannot run elsewhere,

for I know that you are waiting, welcoming.

And I know that only you can heal me and hold me.

So I will come with empty hands to your supper,
empty hands and dirty feet.

I will come as your guest
and with water, bread and wine

you will make me whole and set me free to serve you. Ruth Burgess
